

GIS Glossary for Remote Sensing

NDVI (Normalized Difference Vegetation Index) is computed as $(\text{NIR} - \text{Red}) / (\text{NIR} + \text{Red})$. It quantifies vegetation greenness.

NDWI (Normalized Difference Water Index) uses Green and NIR bands to enhance water bodies in satellite imagery.

DEM (Digital Elevation Model) records terrain elevation in raster form and supports slope and watershed analysis.